Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The close-knit family provides the strength of the American social fabric; and,

WHEREAS, The family can bridge the generation gap with mutual respect and span the comunication gap with understanding; and,

WHEREAS, Ministering to the needs of the family should be a priority of our social institutions; and,

WHEREAS, The improvement of family life can do much to prevent unnecessary suffering, pain, and hardship in our society; and,

WHEREAS, Government policy and actions can contribute to the erosion or enhancement of the health and vitality of the family; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota's farms and towns provide both happy homes and enjoyable vacationlands for our families:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 22 through 28, 1981, as

FAMILY WEEK

In South Dakota, and I respectfully urge all South Dakotans to rededicate themselves to truly appreciating the role of the family in shaping us as individuals.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
